51 young people participated in the program.
8 graduated this year and the rest continue their secondary education.

TUTORING AND SCOLARSHIPS FOR SECONDARY STUDIES

Alma Ledesma

18 years old, entered the Program in 2019.

"At the beginning of the year, I set myself the goals of finishing school, starting an internship and continuing my studies. Today, I finished school, did the internship, became effective, and I will continue studying Kinesiology. Seeing my goals met, I feel happy and proud of my commitment, effort and patience to achieve them. The truth is, I feel very satisfied."

Alma, in addition to all her goals, set out to learn a new language, she participated in the virtual english classes, offered by the NGO with young volunteers from the USA.

TUTORING AND SCOLARSHIPS FOR HIGHER STUDIES

Facundo Álvarez

Undergraduate Economics student, 20 years old.

"Personally, this was a year with many changes and, in that sense, I always felt accompanied by the NGO and the tutorials, which helped me organize my times and goals.
I had to overcome my fears about what would happen to my studying if my situation at work became complicated.
I was able to face this difficulty and find a balance.
I hope next year I can improve my performance, because this year, with so many changes, I feel like I lowered it a bit."

Facundo entered the Tutoring and Scholarship Program for Secondary Studies in 2016.
Upon completion, he continued in 2020 with the Program for Higher Studies.
He actively participates in all the Personal Development proposals the NGO offers, such as "Economy in simple terms".

Aldana Vega

Violinist, 15 years old. She joined the Orchestra in 2019.

"I really appreciate the time that teachers dedicate to us and how they transmit their knowledge. Personally, this year I learned to ask for help when I don't know something and to work more in a group.
I love rehearsing with the Orchestra, I really enjoy it when we all play together. The same goes for the Art workshop and talking with the teacher.
I enjoy volunteering at the NGO, learning new things while helping too."

Aldana also participates in the Visual Arts and Chess Workshop and joined this year as a volunteer in the NGO, collaborating in the organization of the different activities that are carried out. In 2022, through the Listening and Accompaniment Program, Aldana was able to strengthen her capacities.

Joaquín Carabajal

Cellist, 14 years old. He joined the Orchestra in 2019.

"This year I learned a lot, I can't have better teachers. Also, I started learning more on my own, researching and practicing more with the cello. I realized that nobody is going to do things for me and that to improve and achieve what I want I have to make an effort, that's why every day I'm studying and practicing more. I look forward to next year, to be able to continue to learn and grow."

Joaquín joined the NGO in 2018, in the Visual Arts Workshop, where he participated for 2 years. In Addition to the Orchestra, this year he also joined the Chess Workshop.

VISUAL ARTS WORKSHOP

It is supported by:

65 children and young people participated in the Workshop. With a strong focus on playfulness, different proposals were developed to awaken curiosity and creativity in children.

VISUAL ARTS WORKSHOP

Irina Mazzaron

12 years old. She entered the Visual Arts Workshop in 2022.

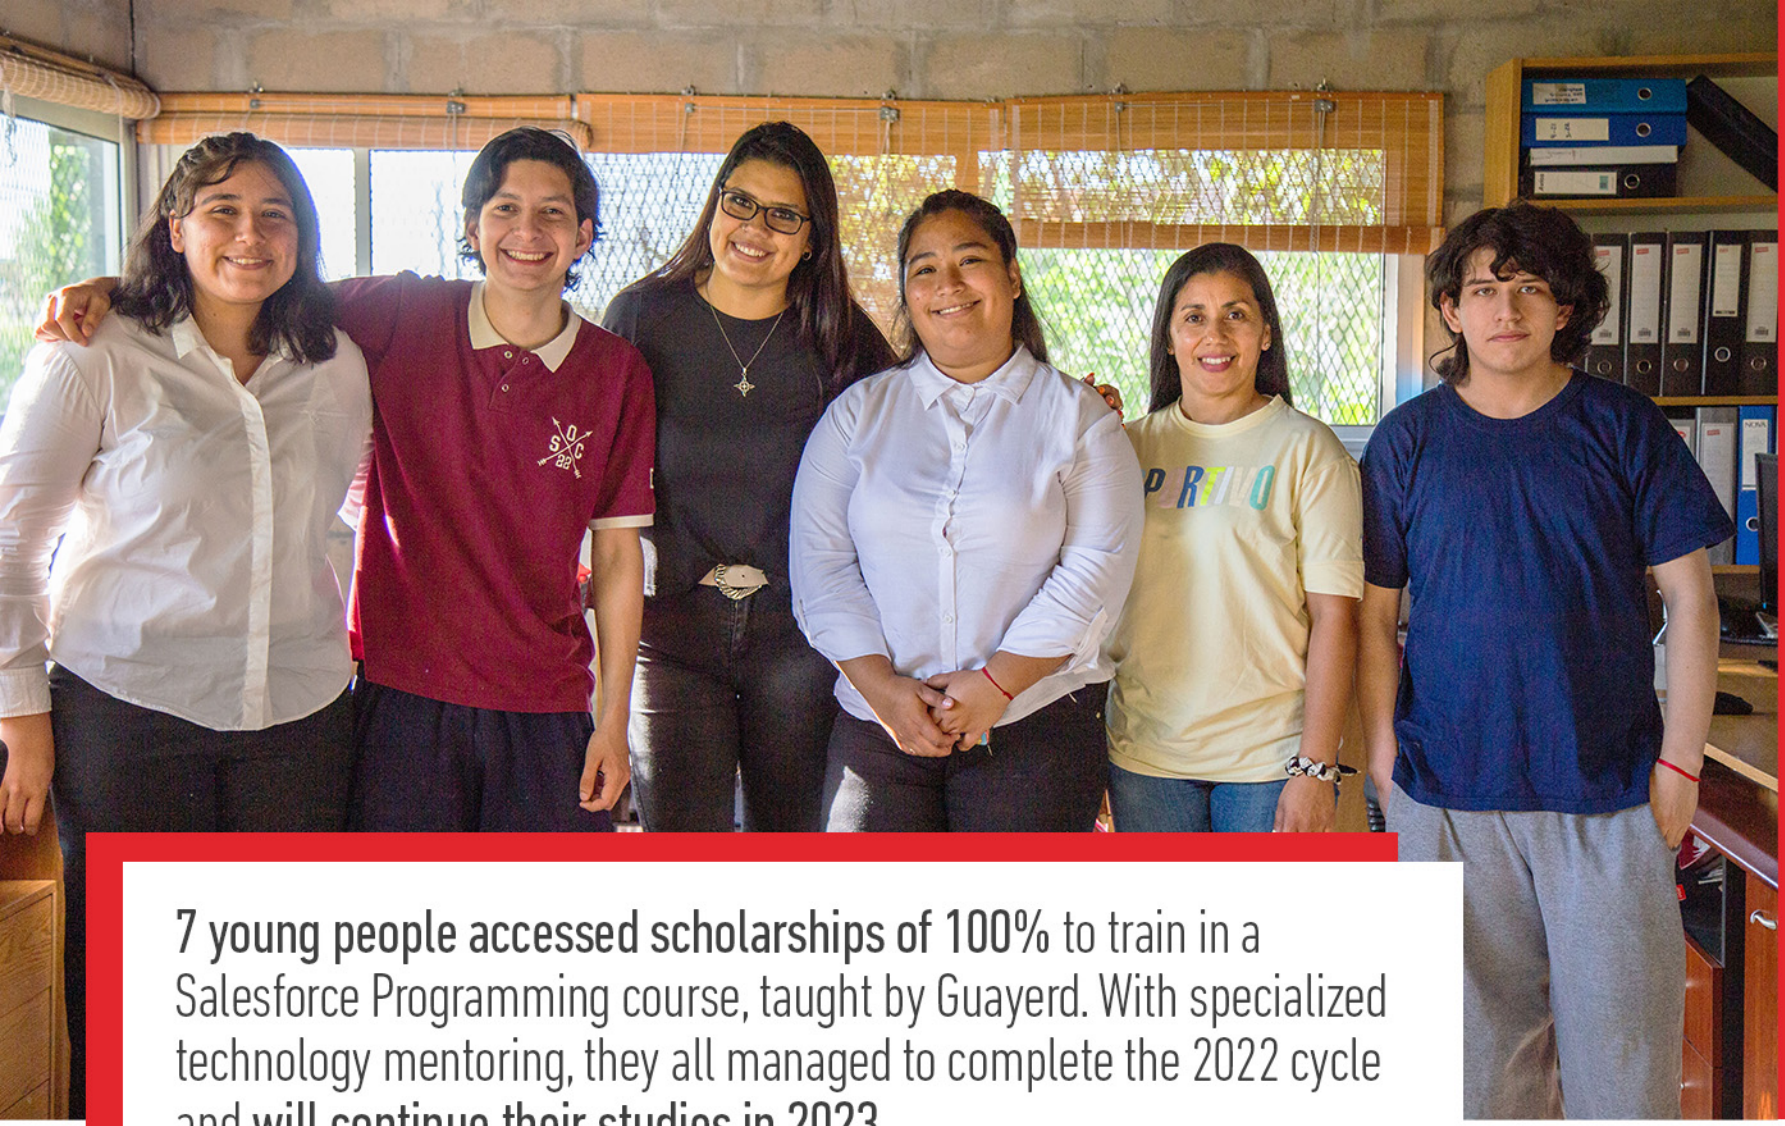
"I like drawing, painting, making collages and learning new things. I love being in the NGO because it's so beautiful and I feel very good here."

This year, Irina also joined the Orchestra and is learning Trumpet.

Aimé Silva

11 years old. Joined the Visual Arts Workshop in 2022.

"What I like most in Art is drawing with pencil and painting. Also learning new things and doing Origami. This year I learned to use tempera and watercolours better, and to draw people and their proportions."



DIGITAL EDUCATION

7 young people accessed scholarships of 100% to train in a Salesforce Programming course, taught by Guayerd. With specialized technology mentoring, they all managed to complete the 2022 cycle and will continue their studies in 2023.

DIGITAL EDUCATION

Gabriel Romero

17 years old, Senior in high school.

"I know this opportunity will help us with our future. In my case, it helped me to choose something that I would like to continue studying and, tomorrow, be able to work in this field. It was very important for me the support of the NGO with the programming classes. Thanks to this, the pressure I felt when doing the course, especially because of the time it demands, did not affect me and I was able to move forward and overcome the difficulties."

Gabriel completed much of the course at the NGO's facilities, using the computers set up for the students.

ENGLISH CLASSES

End of the year meeting, with some of the students who participated, to evaluate results, opportunities for improvement and plan the following year.

17 young people from the NGO took remote english classes taught by 6 young volunteers from Miami, in a very enriching experience of service and learning.

ENGLISH CLASSES

Juan Uriel Rojas

Tutoring and Scolarships for Secondary Studies

"I wanted to improve what I already knew, especially the written and oral part. Reading and listening I understand, I learned on my own with the things that interest me that are in English. I would like to continue with the classes to learn more of the grammatical part."

Aymara Paz Cancino

Tutoring and Scolarships for Secondary Studies

"The English classes helped me improve my pronunciation. I think it beneficial that it was someone my age, we could chat about ourselves and that made the class more entertaining."

ECONOMY IN SIMPLE TERMS

- 24 hours of hand-to-hand meetings with Gustavo Lazzari, with different dynamics and practical exercises.
- 24 podcasts, accessible on 5 platforms, a short course that explains, in simple terms, the principles of economics.
- The objective is to understand our context and incorporate tools of action and analysis for life.

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Parenting workshops for parents with Maritchu Seitún; workshops for young people on motivation and creative thinking with Pablo de la Cruz Sabor; Workshop on post-pandemic emotional impact, for the Las Tunas NGO team, with Christian Plebst.
- Chess workshop at the headquarters and virtual english classes.

LISTENING, ACCOMPANIMENT AND EARLY REFERRAL

- To respond to a complex post-COVID reality, a team was formed, with the accompaniment of two psychologists and a psychiatrist for referrals.
- The form, modality and content are adapted to the needs of each child.
